ASARABACCA.

NAMES.

A. اسارون

G. Ἄσαρον.

L. Asarum.

I. Asaro baccara.

G. Haſelwurtz.

F. Cabaret.

S. Asarabacar.

D. Mans-oren.

PLACE.

It is always planted in Gardens.

PAR

The

Leave

PREP

DESCRIPTION.

The Root 5, in the Large part is white, from which grow many sm brown Fibres 2, which when dry afford a Pleasent Aromatic scent. The a light Green, set with a few White Hairs; cut through 3 shews thre one like a Crescent or Half Moon, between two round ones, are a fine dark Green, smooth, shining, whiter between the Ribs
The Flower 3, is a dark Mixture of Brown and Purple; The blackish Purple, The Seed-Vessel 6, is a reddish Brown at the the Flower: The Style, Chives, and Summits 7, are dark Pu
8, 9, 10, are of a light Redish Brown. The Root cut Transversly 11.

PROPERTIES.

It is very rough, pungent, heating, almost to the degree of a Mine

T. Sheldrake delin.

M.S.